Girls' Night

Turn your regular night in with the girls into something a bit more special...

Have everyone dress up as a foxy female personality that you admire, whether it be Audrey Hepburn, Madonna or Angelina Jolie — wear heels, style your hair in a fancy do, dust off your black dress!

To give the party a twist, if you are the hostess, why don't YOU tell your friends who they have to come as! Don't give them a choice! If your friend reminds you of someone, then make them that person for the night.

Drinks

Go sophisticated — Sip Midori Martinis out of Martini Glasses.

Food

Go posh with canapés — M&S do some great ones: mini cheeseburger anyone?

Otherwise keep it simple — what girls love best: crisps, dips, pizza and salad

Entertainment

Get into character; you have to be that person that you have chosen, throughout the night! Pepper your conversation with references to Yoga if you are Madonna, Brad Pitt if you are Angelina Jolie, or your favourite fruit names for your children if you are Gwyneth Paltrow. Everybody has to guess who you are — not only from your outfit, but your whole persona!

Watch some classic girlie films — Thelma and Louise, Pretty Woman, Dirty Dancing.
